Niews on Monroe Doctrine

Washington, Dec. 19.—An important personable in the government who lasts the White House and the state, yar and navy buildings frequently, add yesterday:

'I am not an alarmist, but I must profess that I am profoundly impressed with the responsibilities resting upon the shoulders of the United States in this crisis. The trouble, of course, it all over the degree of the profession of the United States in this crisis. ourse, he all over the Monroe dop-rine. It is Germany's hand that is highing this game, and so far it has been played very cleverly. She has of generaled us by lulling us into ancied seturity and she has outgen-cialed England by getting her into a liptomatic trap, from which she will alphomatic trap, from which she will have difficulty in extracting herself.

First, we had a German yacht built over here. Then the visit of Prince Henry to attend the christening, the daughter of the president to break the bottle of wine; the presentation of the statue of Frederick the Great to the United States and all the while a persistent campaign to revive a love for the fatherland in the breasts of German-Americans. Then we have England to act jointly with Germany. This proposition, of course, sounded very sice to us. The first thought was that if Great Britain joined Germany in Venesuela it was a double guaran-tee that the Monroe doctrine would that the Monroe doctrine would not be infringed.

Then you think the fact of Great Britain acting with Germany does not insure the Monroe doctrine against molecution!

molectation?"
I certainly to not, unless public opinion in England should club the ministry there into making a Gladstonian retreat, which I fear is not to be expected.

"We might as well make up our minds now as any other time, too, that if the Monroe doctrine is to be defended it must be defended with Impersonated Government Employe Canton, O. Dec. 19.-Edmund Ha er has been arrested by United States officials and will be given a hearing at Warren today. The charge against at Warren today. The charge against Hauser is that he represented himself as a government employe to examine and withdraw from circulation counterfeit coin. Accordingly he, it is alleged, visited a number of stores in this city and, showing a badge which seemed to prove his statement, was seemed to prove his statement. seemed to prove his statement, was allowed to examine money in the cash drawer. In several instances he is said to have taken money and placed it in his pocket, on the ground that it was counterfeit and would have to be confiscated. The sum of money ob tained was not large.

Philadelphia, Dec. 19.—At the University of Pennsylvania, early this year, a course of lectures, about 40 in number, were delivered by university refessors, in co-operation with the pard of public education of the city of Philadelphia. The lectures were attended by large audiences. A citi-ren of Philadelphia, who has never permitted his name to be known, paid all the expenses of the entire course, and, gratified at the result, the same citizen has agreed to put the uni-versity in funds to do the same work in the early months of 1903. Bill Passed to Reduce Duties on Philippine Products Coming Into the United States.

PURE FOOD MEASURE DISCUSSED

State Department for the Corre spondence in the Venezuelan Tan gle Was Adopted-General News.

Washington, Dec. 19.—The house yesterday passed the bill to reduce the duties on the products of the Philip-pine islands coming into the United ley rates (the present dutien) to 25 per cent of those rates. The discussion of the bill was accompanied by considerable maneuvering on the Democratic side to secure test votes on various amendments designed to and a record vote was forced on a mo tion to recommit with instructions to report a bill providing for absolute free trade with the islands. The division on this proposition was party lines, with the exception of Mr. McCall (Rep., Mass.), who voted with the Democrats.

The discussion of the pure food bill which has been made a continuing or-der until disposed of, was begun. Mr. Tompkins (O.) and Mr. Adamson (Ala.) opened the debate respectively for and against the bill. Mr. Gardner (Mass.) opposed the bill. The McCall resolution calling on the state department for the correspondence in the Venezuelan imbroglio was adopted at the beginning of the session. house, at 4:25 p. m., adjourned.

THE NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

Reviva; of Animation and Prices Rush to Top Figures at Close-Bonds Active and Strong.

New York, Dec. 19.-There was an pward jump in prices at the start vesterday and the market showed a constantly broadening tendency till past midday. The demand after that showed some signs of satisfaction, but in the last half hour there was a re-vival of animation and a final rush of prices to the top level of the day. with a strong closing.

Sentiment regarding the money out look has steadily grown more confi-dent. The banks have been relieved from much of the sub-treasury drain which has been sapping their re sources for several weeks. Their loss the government institution up to Wednesday night was only $638,000 while for the corresponding period last week it had reached $4,656,000, without counting the $1,000,000 taken for export to South America. The deposit yesterday for transfer to Chicago of $100,000 is something of an anamoly, in view of the 35-cest premium on New York exchange at Chi
